 IMPORTANT: We all want this trip to be a great "fit" for you. *****

So, below are fitness levels you'll want to reach in order to enjoy these gorgeous mountain hikes & to keep pace with the other hikers. Because we'll be based at 6,500-foot elevation, we've chosen beautiful – but easier – hikes. We'll also do fun adventures (jeeping, rafting, train ride, electric bike) that require no huffing & puffing.

- * Walk 6 miles on fairly level terrain.
- * Cover an elevation gain of 700 feet over 2 miles.
- * Hike in weather that could be 85-degrees (usually dry heat) and/or rainy.
- * Hike over somewhat rocky terrain.
- * Take a jeep ride to 12,500 feet elevation (but no hiking that high!)

If you feel a hike is too difficult for you, feel free to relax at our lodge, or our guides can recommend another Durango activity. For more info about the hikes, their difficulty, and your ability level, contact us at TrailboundTrips@gmail.com. In addition, we'll mail you a trip booklet in advance, which has more trip information and training tips.

Please check here ___ so we know you're on board.

We're delighted you're joining us! We'll send you detailed trip information as the dates near.
