Trailbound Trips: Dream. Explore. Discover.

Explore charming, historic Galena.

Day 1

10:15 am: Hike Apple River Canyon

In this charming canyon, icefalls cascade from cliffs along the picturesque Apple River. Once the bottom of a vast inland sea that stretched from the Alleghenies to the Rockies, this area was chiseled into cliffs and canyons by the Apple River. Our 3-mile hike winds along the Apple River, through hardwood and pine forests, along animal trails, and beside gorgeous cliff-top views of the canyon. We'll also check out a favorite eagle roosting spot.

A bit of history... The town of Millville once flourished here. Named after two sawmills, Millville thrived as a stop on the Galena-to-Chicago stagecoach route until 1854 when the Illinois Central Railroad built its Freeport to Galena route, just four miles north of town. In 1892, a devastating flood washed out the dam, swept away many buildings, and forever drove out the townspeople.

1:45 pm: Check into the DeSoto House

Hotel After a great hike, check into our historic hotel in the heart of downtown Galena. The DeSoto House is Illinois' oldest operating hotel, where Abe Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas, and William Jennings Bryan stayed. This warm and charming 1855 landmark also served as presidential campaign headquarters for Ulysses S. Grant. Graciously decorated Victorian rooms provide modern bathrooms, televisions, and other conveniences. The Courtyard Restaurant is a lovely 4-story atrium serving breakfast and lunch daily. (Your lodging is included in the trip cost.)

2 pm: Explore Downtown Galena

Step out of our hotel and into the center of this charming town on the banks of the Galena River. Enjoy its 19th century mansions, one-of-a-kind shops, warm ambience, local wineries, and eateries.

...Or Hike with the guides along the Galena River.

Enjoy a tribe of like-minded outdoor women.

Savor winter's beauty in this gorgeous setting.

6 pm: Dine at Fried Green Tomatoes

Savor this locally famous restaurant’s great food and fun ambience. It’s housed in the building where Ulysses S. Grant worked in the 1860s, helping his father and brothers with the family leather and harness business.

Relax After Dinner in your comfy room or enjoy one another’s company in the hotel’s common areas.

Day 2

9 am: Watch Eagles Eagle-watch on the Great River, near where Iowa, Illinois, and Wisconsin meet. We’ll visit a dam that is popular with wintering eagles; the dam’s churning waters keep the river from freezing and stun fish as they flow through it – providing relatively easy-picking for eagles’ primary food source. We’ll also hike at Eagle Point Park, described as one of the Midwest’s most outstanding parks, with great vistas of the Mississippi and “birds’ eye” views of eagles.

10 am: Hike Mines of Spain Horseshoe Bluff Nestled along the Mississippi River, this gorgeous 1.5-mile trail takes us along beaver lodges and through towering canyons of Ordovician rock. This is a favorite hike!

11:30 am: Explore Catfish Creek Our 2-mile route hugs the banks of pretty Catfish Creek, where backwaters of the Mississippi flow. We’ll also follow the upper trail through forests of birch and 200-year-old oaks. The village of the Mesquakie (Fox) Indians was located at the mouth of Catfish Creek; there they traded furs with French voyagers and mined lead in the countryside.

1:30 pm: Enjoy River Overlooks You’ll love this optional 1-mile hike to a beautiful bluff over the Mississippi, where we’ll look for soaring eagles, and learn of the unlikely friendship of the two men buried here.

Head home, refreshed and restored.

Add a bit of adventure this winter.

Learn who is buried here, overlooking the Mississippi.

Enjoy the pretty Galena-area countryside
